

Ottoman Summer Program Turkish Class

This year, ANAMED's Ottoman Summer Program offers Turkish in the afternoons. The classes will be held online on Fridays and Saturdays between 4 PM and 6:15 PM with a 15-minute break in-between. It will be a 4-week course between July 6, 2020 and August 1, 2020.

The goal of this course is to provide students with skills to help read and understand modern Turkish texts such as news articles from the Turkish media and short stories of modern Turkish literature.

Course objectives are to familiarize the students with terms, words and special verbs used with written language through media, to help them to be able to work and understand long and complex sentences in Turkish articles, and to be able to follow news as well as make conversations. Short stories will focus on the grammar and structures on the contemporary texts.

The instructor will provide newspaper articles and worksheets/vocabulary lists and literary text. The students are encouraged to use the online dictionaries seslisözlük.com and tureng.com and also quizlet.com for creating and studying new vocabulary cards.

The students will be assigned weekly with reading homework. There will be an assignment towards a final exam before last class of the session.

Students are expected to promptly attend the classes and complete all of their assignments in a timely fashion.
