PROJECT INFORMATION

Chronological Period	Pre-Classical
Field(s) to be reviewed in	Ottoman
Methodological Approach	History
Project Title	This title may be used on the ANAMED website and in other publicity materials
Project Abstract	Please provide an abstract of 250 or fewer words that describes the project you wish to undertake at ANAMED. If a fellowship is awarded, this abstract may be used on ANAMED's website and in other publicity materials. (NOTE: This form does not allow special formatting or tabs. Please use ALL CAPS to highlight headings, and leave blank spaces between paragraphs.)
Project Description	Please provide a description of 1500 or fewer words of the project that you wish to undertake at ANAMED, clearly stating the duration. The project description should include the project's relevance to the given field, the resources required in Turkey, and steps taken to get permissions to access those resources, as appropriate to your study. Each applicant should indicate how much s/he has already undertaken on the proposed project as well as what specific products (e.g., publication, intensive material analysis, or conservation-restoration projects) are intended as outcomes. If the applicant is pursuing a collaborative project with Koç University faculty, center, or facilities, s/he must clearly demonstrate the previously established connections in the project description. (NOTE: This form does not allow special formatting or tabs. Please use ALL CAPS to highlight headings, and leave blank spaces between paragraphs.)

Project's Connection to ANAMED/Koç University

Please explain in 250 or fewer words why you think a fellowship in Istanbul at ANAMED and Koç University, in particular, is essential to your research.

Project's Research Facility and/or Laboratory Instrument Requirements

If appropriate to your research, please list which Koç University research facilities and/or laboratory instruments you plan to use for your research, explaining briefly why each is necessary.
